++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Wintry showers in north. Bright and cold in the south.

This Evening and Tonight:
Much of the country will be dry with clear spells and a widespread frost. However, wintry showers can be expected across the north and northeast with some lying snow away from windward coasts. Ice will readily form. Breezy.

Thursday:
A few wintry showers in the north and east at first. Otherwise, a cold and sunny morning. Becoming cloudy later with rain and snow spreading east in the evening.

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Dry for most on Friday, but showers in northwest. Cold and bright with wintry showers on Saturday, the showers mainly in the north and west. Dry and cold on Sunday.
